The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen. (Matthew 6:9-13)

The Word of the Lord from Romans 8:15-17, 26-27

For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry 'Abba! Father!' The Spirit himself bears witness that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs – heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with Him in order that we may also be glorified with Him. Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And He who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

The Heidelberg Catechism Question & Answers 120-121

Why has Christ commanded us to address God thus: OUR FATHER?
To awaken in us, at the very beginning of our prayer, that filial reverence and trust toward God, which are to be the ground of our prayer; name that God has become our Father through Christ, and will much less deny us what we ask of Him in faith, than our parents refuse us earthly things (Is. 49:15; Mt. 6:9; Lk. 11:11).

Why is it added, IN HEAVEN?

That we may have no earthly thought of the heavenly majesty of God; and may expect from His almighty power all things necessary for body and soul (Jer. 23:24; Acts 17:24; Rom. 10:12).
